

Brendon 66 Youth Football Club

Founded 1966

Affiliated to the Hampshire Football Association

Brendon 66 Youth Football Club.

Code of Conduct.

1. All players, officials, parents and supporters must remember that this club was formed so that everyone involved should agree to the right code of ethics in football. Enjoy yourself always and play the game with a smile on your face.
2. All players must always respect and be polite to match officials, opposition players, team managers and coaches, League, County and Football Association officials and spectators.
3. At all times, all club members should adhere and respect the laws and spirit of football. Promote fair play and high standards of behaviour on and off the pitch.
4. All officials, managers, parents and supporters must respect match official's decisions and, never enter the field of play without seeking the permission of the referee.
5. All club members should not publicly engage in criticism of match officials and never use offensive, insulting and abusive language or behaviour.
6. All club officials must place the well-being, safety and enjoyment of all players above everything including winning.
7. No form of bullying within the club will be tolerated, any breach of this will be investigated and dealt with by club, league or county welfare officer.
8. Officers and managers of the club must explain to all players what behaviour is acceptable during matches, after game and other club events and appearances. Also, to explain what players can expect as acceptable behaviour from club officers, managers, parents and spectators.
9. Ensure all parents / carers of all players at youth level (Under the age of 18 years) understand what respectful and acceptable behaviour is expected as members of the club.
10. Encourage all players in the club to be responsible for their discipline and performance. Also, all players must co-operate fully with other individuals in football for the good of the club and the player's best interests.

Brendon 66 Youth Football Club

Founded 1966

Affiliated to the Hampshire Football Association

11. Ensure all club activities and training are organised at a level that is appropriate for all levels of ability, age group and maturity.
12. Finally, all officers, players, parents and supporters of the club are reminded that any form of discrimination will not be acceptable and, result in the guilty party being reprimanded and expelled from the club.

Any rules, conditions and other conduct matters not covered in this illustrated code of conduct can be added by the officers and management of the club at the Annual General Meeting of Brendon 66 YFC or at the Club Management Meeting.